[redacted] Comments.

- (1) A report [redacted] indicated that an artillery unit of the 6th Arty Div from the Generalfeldzeugmeister Kaserne was entrained for Altengrabow. [redacted]
- (2) The troops possibly were recruits for the Second Gds Meoz Army.
- (3) Units of the 2d Light Arty Brig (US), including the regiment of Lieutenant Colonel Knochkov (fnu) who is known from previous reports, have hitherto been carried stationed in the Deutsch Forest north of Neustrelitz. These units only conducted firing with live ammunition in the Speck-Granzin area northwest of Neustrelitz. The Olympisches Dorf in Doberitz quarters, among other units, the 11th Gds AT Artz Brig (?) of the Fourth Gds Meoz Army which is now practicing in Templin.
- (4) Frankfurt/Oder is known as processing station for recruits arriving in Eastern Germany from the U.S.S.R.
- (5) [redacted] the train carried a unit of the 2d AAA Div. The train probably is the one which, according to [redacted] in Sperenberg, went to Neubukow on 21 July.
- (6) The column of motor vehicles belongs to the GDFG.
- (7) [redacted] the train carried a unit of the 34th Arty Div (US) which possibly went to Altengrabow.
- (8) The information indicates that components of the headquarters of the Fourth Gds Meoz Army and of the 63d AAA Div (US) were loaded on five trains for Eberswalde during the period from 25 to 29 July. Previous reports indicated that about five trains went from Eberswalde to Altengrabow during the same period. They probably are identical with those mentioned above. [redacted]
- (9) This train was unloaded by units of the Fourth Gds Meoz Army and is probably identical with one of the two trains which went from Justerbog to Eberswalde on 26 July 1952.
- (10) The tank practice was presumably conducted by units of the Fourth Gds Meoz Army stationed at the Templin troop training grounds nearby.
- (11) Reports [redacted] indicated that, in about mid-July 1952, the installation had been vacated by units of the 33d Gds Mtz Rifle Regt of the 9th Gds Tank Div and that Volkspolizei would move in.
